Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. ## Continuation of 4(e) Other:

First and foremost, the applicant is cordially thanked for the 'Response to Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment' filed 24 March 2006. However, at least one seemingly non-compliant claim amendment has been discovered in the aforementioned paper, requiring attention before examination may continue.

37 C.F.R. § 1.121(c)(2) requires, "The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters."

However, the 'Response to Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment' filed 24 March 2006 at least appears to improperly seek to delete subject matter from a claim, wherein the subject matter was not present in the immediate prior version of the claim. More particularly, amended claim 8 attempts to delete the subject matter, "supplied to the first and second common signal lines" (see the last line of page 4 from the 'Response to Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment' filed 24 March 2006). However, the immediate prior version of the claim recited the subject matter, "supplied to the first and second common signal lines" (see the 5th to last line of page 2 from the 'Preliminary Amendment' filed 9 September 2003).

By such reasoning, this Notice of Non-Compliance is deemed necessary and proper at this time.

Please note: The amendment has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible non-compliance errors. If additional issues of non-compliance are discovered at the time of a subsequent amendment, yet another Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment will be necessitated. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any other errors of which applicants may become aware.

The applicant is hereby notified that the examiner's art unit has recently changed from Art Unit 2673 to Art Unit 2629, please direct all future correspondence accordingly. Thank you.
